

The Weekly Chronicle.

THE DALLES, - - - OREGON

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Cary Jenkins is in the city from Ranier, visiting his relatives here.

S. F. Blythe, the genial editor of the bright little Hood River Glacier, was in the city for an hour today.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Evans are in the city from Olympia, visiting Mrs. Evans' sister, Mrs. O. L. Barrett.

Frederick Elder Warner was in the city yesterday, and conducted the services at the Methodist church.

Mr. W. Kerr left for Grass Valley this afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Newman and son, Alden, who will remain there for several months.

Mr. Taylor Hill came in from Prineville, arriving yesterday. He was accompanied by Mr. Perkins, formerly of this city, who came in to visit friends here.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, in this city, Sunday, March 21st, Walter Norman and Miss Grace Kelly, Rev. F. L. Pierce, of the Christian church of Brownsville, officiating.

The groom is the son of our townsman, I. J. Norman, the bride the daughter of Deputy Sheriff Kelly. The young couple have the best wishes of innumerable friends in their matrimonial venture, and as these are augmented by the paternal blessing of THE CHRONICLE, a long and happy life should be theirs.

If asked the question "Have you got a stomach?" it would be safe on general principles, to answer "Yes." But, if you are sure of it, that is, if you ever feel any distress after eating or any pains of whatever description in the region of the stomach, you have got something else besides an ordinary stomach; in other words you have got a diseased stomach. The stomach is a powerful muscle, and the proper remedy for a tired muscle is rest. Try the Shaker Digestive Cordial, for this product not only contains digested food, which will nourish the system without any work on the part of the diseased organs, but it aids the digestion of other foods as well. You can test its value in your case for the trifling sum of 10 cents. Sample bottles at this price are carried by all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

WILL PAY THE STATE.

County Judge Mays Thinks This the Proper Thing.

The county judges of the different counties of the state met, or were represented, in Portland recently, and many of them are of the opinion that the state's proportion of taxes should not be paid over to the state treasurer, but should be used in paying off county indebtedness, thus stopping interest. This scheme might work were it certain that there would be no extra session of the legislature.

In conversation with Judge Mays this morning, he took the view that the duty of the county is plain, that is, it must turn over the money as required by law; that the action of the legislature is not sufficient to justify a state of lawlessness on the part of everybody else. "Suppose," said he, "we should use the state's portion of the taxes to pay off county indebtedness, and that after this was done a special session should be called and the state demand its money. What would we do? The money being expended, could not be paid over."

There is no use in creating legal complications over the matter, when by doing as the law requires they can be avoided.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest dangers from La Grippe is of it resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for a gripe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will affect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

FREE LECTURES.

At the Baldwin Opera House Six Nights at 8 O'clock.

Commencing Monday night Dr. Del-Mac-Claise, the eminent lecturer and examiner in chief for the Oriental Medical Syndicate of San Francisco and Calcutta, will give a series of illustrated lectures in costume on the laws of life and health, the origin, prevention and cure of disease, and give demonstrations of human occult forces. Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock private lecture for ladies only, and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock men only. The San Francisco Examiner says of the lectures: "The lectures are not only replete with the grandest ideas, but the speaker illustrates his subject with artistic colored crayonings. His gorgeous oriental costumes and typical scenery are pleasing to the eye. At the close of each lecture he gives an exhibition of his peculiar powers that eclipse the miracles of hypnotism or mind reading."

LAND OF SUNSET SHORES

work is of the best, his prices are such as to suit the times. He is extremely courteous and is ever ready to give advice to any and all. His offices at Nos. 1 and 2, Chapman Block.

Dr. D. Siddall.

The pioneer dentist of The Dalles is Dr. D. Siddall, who has practiced in this city for the past eighteen years. He has the latest and most improved cataphoric appliances used for painless operations, and is also the inventor of Siddall's Dental Elevators, for the extraction of broken teeth which are low down in the gum. Dr. Siddall is an up-to-date dentist and is one of The Dalles most respected citizens.

Mrs. C. Nelson & Co.

If one wants a clean, first-class meal, you can be accommodated at 126 Court street, where Mrs. Nelson sets as good table as can be found in the city for 15 to 25 cents. The waiters at this restaurant are pleasant and eager to please, and one is always assured of prompt treatment.

Dr. Hugh Logan.

In a neat little office over M. Z. Donnell's drug store you will find Dr. Hugh Logan any time between 9 and 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 p. m. His office telephone is No. 16, his residence phone being 116. Dr. Logan is as good a physician as is to be found in the city, and we wish and predict him as much success in the future as he has enjoyed in the past.

C. L. Phillips.

Located at the corner of Eighth and Union streets is a large grocery store owned and conducted by C. L. Phillips. He carries a full line of groceries, canned goods, poultry, also hay and grain, and he delivers goods to any part of the city free of charge. His wife, Mrs. C. L. Phillips, runs a millinery store on Washington street, between Second and Third.

C. C. Cooper.

A large harness dealer is C. C. Cooper, successor to Export & Gabel. He bought out this firm about six months ago, since which time he has met with good success. He manufactures all his own harness, saddles, etc. Has a fine line of team harness—none better in The Dalles. He makes a specialty of repairing, and has reduced his prices so as to meet the hard times. He also has a complete line of robes, whips, spurs, etc. Anyone wishing anything in his line have only to call at his place, just opposite Z. F. Moody's warehouse.

G. C. Eshelman, M. D.

Among The Dalles professional men worthy of notice is Dr. G. C. Eshelman, homeopathic physician and surgeon. He has been in the city several years; was health officer three years. He is a graduate of Hohneman Hospital College of Chicago, and is a non-resident physician of Portland Hospital. He makes a specialty of pulmonary diseases, but does a general practice also, in city and country.

City Livery and Feed Stable.

A poor livery rig is an abomination, and there are no abominations at the above named livery, located at northwest corner of Fourth and Federal streets. The barn is owned by Messrs. Tom A. Ward, W. G. Kerns and Jos. T. Robertson. They have rigs for all purposes, and gentle saddle horses for women and children. They give special attention to feeding transient stock and solicit the commercial travelers' trade. Always ready to provide a good fast rig and careful driver. The prices are very reasonable, such as to suit the hard times.

The Dalles Lumber Co.

This company was incorporated December, 1886, with a capital stock of $50,000. The company have their own saw mills, located sixteen miles southwest of here. Lumber and cordwood is transferred to this place in a flume, the capacity of same being 50,000 feet of lumber or 100 cords of wood per day. The company has facilities for manufacturing all kinds of rough and dressed lumber, and other building material, also doors, windows, house and office finishings and boxes of all kinds. This is the largest manufacturing enterprise in the city, the company employing from 75 to 100 men, the officers are: Thos. Johns, pres.; C. C. Hobart, vice-pres.; and S. S. Johns, sec'y and treas.

Columbia Packing Co.

Prominent among the representative business houses of The Dalles is the Columbia Packing Co., under the management of Mr. Edward Pirman. They are manufacturers of lard and sausage, pork packers and shippers of dressed meats. Their place is located at the corner of Third and Washington streets. Their patronage is extremely large, owing to the fact that in preparing their sausage, lard, etc., nothing is used but the best and freshest of meats, and their reputation as packers is second to none. Their meats find a market in almost every part of Oregon as well as in other states.

Maetz & Fundt.

Among the many resorts of this city there is none that receives a greater patronage or is better known than the saloon owned by Maetz & Fundt. The main saloon is a large, spacious room, with modern fixtures, glasses for all styles of drinks and a man to mix the same of great experience and knowledge. It is an orderly place and selected for a pleasure resort by the better class of trade. Their wines and liquors are all pure and of the best, while their beer is known all over the country as being the best ever made. They handle a line of domestic and imported cigars.

Chas. F. Lauer, City Marshal.

Our guardian of the city, Mr. Charles F. Lauer, is a popular man among all classes, adhering strictly to the duties of his office. He sometimes makes a temporary enemy, but all law abiding people hold him in the greatest respect.

T. A. Hudson.

Mr. T. A. Hudson is the pioneer of real estate and insurance agents of The Dalles. He settled here in 1878 and was employed as salesman by the well known firm of E. Wingo & Co. (now A. M. Williams & Co.) for over four years. In 1882 he resigned his position and engaged in the real estate and insurance business, which he has carried on successfully ever since. By close attention to business and honest dealing Mr. Hudson has earned the confidence of the business community, and his agency has steadily grown to be the largest real estate and insurance office in the city. He is the sole representative in Oregon for the Eastern Oregon Land Co., and has under his charge tracts of land in this state aggregating about six hundred thousand acres. This land comprises the grant to the Dalles Military Road Company, and extends from The Dalles for a distance of 330 miles and terminates at Snake river at a station on the Oregon Short Line known as Nyssa. This large body of land consists of agricultural, timber and grazing lands, and if for sale or can be leased for a term of years at very reasonable rates. Mr. Hudson is also secretary of The Dalles Land and Improvement Co., who own the tract of land known as Thompson's addition to The Dalles. This addition is the most slightly and desirable part of the city for a residence. The lots contain about an acre of ground and are being rapidly settled up.

The insurance department of Mr. Hudson's office is not the least important, and he represents some of the largest and oldest companies in the world. The Liverpool and London & Globe Ins. Co. has been doing business in The Dalles over forty-two million dollars. The American, of Philadelphia, while not so large, is fully as safe a company, and has been doing business since 1810. They have assets of nearly two and a half millions. The Insurance Company of North America is one of the largest American companies in the United States, having assets of over nine and a half millions and policy holders' surplus of over five millions. This company was organized in 1822. The Pennsylvania Ins. Co., of Philadelphia, was incorporated in 1825, and has assets of nearly five millions of dollars, and a net surplus of about two millions. Mr. Hudson has represented these companies for about 15 years, and has paid losses in The Dalles and vicinity aggregating nearly $75,000.

Otis C. Hollister, M. D.

One of the most successful physicians in Eastern Oregon is the above mentioned. He is a graduate of the medical department of the Northwestern University of Chicago. After practicing several years in Iowa, he came to The Dalles, where for the past ten years he has resided, and has built up a very lucrative practice. Dr. Hollister is very popular, owing to his affable manner and conscientious treatment to all who seek his advice.

Fred D. Hill.

This gentleman has been a resident of The Dalles for three years, and during that time has built up a large real estate and insurance business. He is a young man, but very aggressive in his methods, which accounts somewhat for his uniform success in the prompt disposal of property.

There exists no firmer believer in the future of Eastern Oregon, and particularly The Dalles. Being somewhat acquainted with the crowded condition of the East, he ventures to predict that a large surplus population will westward bend their way in the next two years, and that on the banks of the grand Columbia at the head of navigation a great commercial center will spring into being and dominate and control the trade of the Inland Empire and that historic Dalles, from time immemorial a natural trading and distributing point, will be the city. Under certain commercial conditions which almost doubled in six months' time. Conditions are such that property is liable to advance at almost any time. Buy now.

The Great Opportunity knocks once at each man's door. If, if unheeded, hurrying on, returns to knock no more.

Mr. Hill has recently moved into more commodious offices in the new Vogt block and is doing a large business.

C. J. Crandall.

C. J. Crandall, corner of Union and Second street, does a large undertaking business, but of late years his attention has been turned almost entirely to architecture and building. In this line Mr. Crandall has few equals. He has fine creative talent, which is shown in the many fine residences built after his plans, as well as by nearly all the business blocks erected here in recent years. All he needs is a larger field to place himself in the front rank of architects.

N. Wheeldon.

Prominent among the real estate men of Wasco county is Mr. N. Wheeldon, who handles farm, fruit and range lands in any quantity to suit the purchaser, ranging from a city lot to 30,000 acres of enclosed range. He has some exceptional bargains in fruit and farm lands, and he can guarantee eight per cent on improved real estate security for time loans. Mr. Wheeldon also represents some of the most reliable insurance companies in the United States. His office is in the Houghton building.

OUR COUNTY OFFICIALS.

Hon. Robert Mays.

Our county judge, was born in 1830 on a farm in Tennessee, came to Oregon in 1852, located in Wasco county in 1858, engaging in farming and stock raising, and has been one of the most successful men in the county. Mr. Mays was sent to the legislature in 1860. He has held the office of mayor of The Dalles for two terms. He still has large interests in lands and stock and is also connected with two of the largest stores in the city.

T. J. Driver.

The present efficient sheriff of Wasco county, is a man who stands high among his constituents and is the fortunate possessor of a host of warm personal friends, who, in admiration of his numerous sterling qualities, would make most any sacrifice to enhance his success. He was born in Indiana and came to this country fifteen years ago, and says this is the "queen country." Mr. Driver is serving his second term as sheriff and is discharging his duties of that office with his characteristic energy and ability, and in his prompt execution of the law is meeting with the approbation of all good citizens.

A. M. Kelsey.

Our county clerk, was born in Missouri, and in 1874 came west, locating at The Dalles in 1895. Mr. Kelsey was elected county clerk in 1894. How well he discharged the duties of that office being proven by the overwhelming majority by which he went in on his re-election in 1896. He is holding this office at the present time, and his strict attention to business gives him the entire confidence of the people.

C. L. Gilbert

Our county superintendent of the public schools is Mr. C. L. Gilbert, elected in July, 1896. Mr. Gilbert was born in Ohio, and came west in 1888. He first located at Hood River, where he was principal of the public schools 2 1/2 years, after which he served 16 months as county clerk. In filling his present office he is giving entire satisfaction.

A. S. Blowers.

A. S. Blowers, county commissioner, came from Minnesota to Oregon about 8 years ago, engaging in the general mercantile business at Hood River. He is a thrifty, prosperous man, owns several fine fruit farms in Hood River Valley, and is a wide awake, progressive citizen. He is an enthusiast in his faith in his chosen locality, and believes that it is the best, the prettiest and most healthful spot in Oregon and therefore in the world. He was elected county commissioner in 1894, and has made a first-class officer.

D. S. Kimsley.

Our other county commissioner who represents our community, is a man of good judgment, energy, industry and ambition. He is an active worker and takes a deep interest in the county. Mr. Kimsley has a legion of warm friends in Antelope, where he resides, and as a citizen he is universally respected.
